TidBits:

Great art shows abound...

on Mother's day weekend!

Check out PMA's Art in the Park, May 12th & 13th in Seville Square. If you are willing to travel a bit visit ArtsQuest Art and Music Festival, downtown Seaside, FL May 11th-13th.

Both shows feature great local and national artists, including some of your ECBS buddies!

Question of the month...

is your opportunity to win $30 to spend at the meeting with your favorite member vendor. Each month we pose a bead related question to all members at the meeting. If you can answer our question correctly, your name goes in the hat, and you could be the winner!

General Meeting May 21, 2012

Project Night

Our May general meeting night will be a great opportunity to finish up a project! Just bring in some little creative thing that you have not finished or need time to work on. This is a perfect night to bring one of those "trouble child" projects that does not want to come together- your bead buddies may have ideas to help you!

Of course there will be shop-ortunities, gab-ortunities and food: literally and for thought as well.

Speaking of food, we need a few members to bring munchies to the meeting- please call Naita-994-7465 to volunteer. We need food at every meeting so don't be shy! If you can't make it this month be sure to sign up for the next time.

Also please remember: we have the Wright Place beginning at 5:50 pm. Other church programs get a bit cranky when we show up early, so let's not provoke them.

Thank You Everyone!

What a wonderful show we had! Mary Jordan and the Board of ECBS would like to thank everyone for their hard work. Thanks to our wonderful volunteers: Nettie Varnell, Linda Linzy, Marge Hiller and Sally Barnes. Carolyn Jones did a fab job on the advertising (as always) and Mary pulled it all together like magic- she makes it look so easy!

Thanks go to all of our vendors, shoppers, those who brag us up in our community and anyone involved whom I might have forgotten to mention.

We are a small society, but we pull together to do great things.

With Sympathy...

Please spare a kind thought and word for longtime ECBS member Laurie Flynn, who lost her beloved husband, Herb Tankersley on April 25. Plucky Laurie even set up and maintained her booth at our show with the help of buddy Sally Barnes. Our prayers are with you, Laurie.
