General Meeting september 16, 2013

"Stitch & Bitch" night

As we are to be displaced by a large banquet at the Wright Place, we are meeting directly across the street in the youth center (there will be a sign). Since our space will be a little small for a regular class, we will have a nice relaxing project night.
Bring something you need to work on and we'll have good conversation, snacks and fun. Be sure to bring some change for the quarter raffle. Sometimes working with your bead buds can be most inspiring!

On with the Show...

Before we know it our Holiday show will be here.
This is a wonderful opportunity to offer your beautiful work up to the public, especially if you want to begin your career as an artist/retailer with ease. For those whose feet are already wet, the show is an easy, friendly indoor venue for a very reasonable price.
Contracts will be sent out in October, so don't miss the opportunity this year. If you want to enjoy without selling, we welcome volunteers!

About the Retreat...

The deadline for teaching apps for the bead retreat is approaching (next month). We have some awesome visiting teachers who are planning to come, so all you talented locals need to get those apps in! If you have any questions or concerns contact Allida at 251-533-5108 or tewerman@gulftel.com P.S. Allida would be thrilled to see a few more responses to the survey she recently sent!
